Readers' Corner

Author's Program

Special thanks to the Sequoyah PTA for providing funds for authors and illustrators to meet with every grade this year.

In November, Janet Morgan Stoeke thrilled Kindergarteners and 1st graders with her Minerva Louise stories and illustrations. The students were amazed while watching her draw and hearing how she developed her characters.

On January 17, Author/Kids Post Sports Columnist Fred Bowen braved the snow to share his writing processes with the 4th and 5th grades. Author Pamela Duncan Edwards and Author/Illustrator Henry Cole entertained the 2nd and 3rd grades on January 18 and gave vivid descriptions on how books are made; from the initial drafts to printing.

The staff and students thoroughly enjoyed the visits and learned many new writing strategies.

Box Tops Reminders

Please turn in your Box Tops to Mrs. Cameron before the end of February. Even if you have not filled up a form completely, send in your box tops before Feb 29 so that Sequoyah can receive credit for the school year.

Donate small toys, particularly Beanie Babies, for use in Sequoyah's Box Top program. Students receive prizes when submitting the Box Tops their family has collected, and the demand for Beanie Babies has exceeded the supply.

Sports Zone Spring Dance and Silent Auction:

Friday, March 14th 6:30 to 9:00pm. Dress in your favorite sports gear, bring your family, and join your Sequoyah friends for an action-packed, fun-filled night!

To Be Announced

The Cultural Arts Chair is making arrangements for two possible shows in the upcoming months.

The Alphabet Soup: This performance emphasizes healthy choices for Healthy Kids (March)

The Earth Day Guy/Sing to the Heart of the Earth (April)

We are so fortunate to have a PTA that recognizes the value of sharing authors and their books with our children.

Janet Reber and Andrea Cameron,
PTA Author Program Chairs
